

I am worried sick that our democracy is being controlled more and more by monied interests, that is corporate giants and Sinclair's attitude seems to be, "so fine us, we can afford it".

If they run what I understand to be a so-called "documentary" about Kerry so close to an election, it can only be seen as a political ad.

Please help save my country from this sort of thing.

Thank you,

Gerald Locke
4075 Larwin Ave
Cypress, CA 90630